Where Energy Counts

Elko and Humboldt papers are up in arms because the automobile association recently formed by representatives from Esmeralda, White Pine and Nye counties has been named the Nevada State Automobile association. It is claimed that an unfair advantage has been taken in an endeavor to secure the transcontinental auto route through southern Nevada.

The counties that are doing the hollering should remember that the name adopted was flying loose for many years and could have been obtained by any energetic set of men. Just because the live wires of southern and eastern Nevada took advantage of the opportunity and were wide awake and realized the importance of securing the transcontinental route, they should not be blamed.

The transcontinental auto route means thousands of dollars to the various communities through which it passes, and this will be true for Tonopah, Goldfield and Ely. The southern route is the only feasible one to cross Nevada. It is open the year around and the roads at the present time are in excellent condition. The road through Elko and Humboldt counties to Reno is passable only during the summer months and then it is only in fair condition.

With this tremendous asset the people of the south, assisted by the residents of White Pine county, have labored, and it is believed successfully, for the securing of the transcontinental route. Several maps made by pathfinder cars include Tonopah and Goldfield on the routes, and there is every reason to believe this will be made the road across the continent for the handling of the thousands of cars that will cross to take in the Pacific-Panama exhibition in San Francisco during the year 1915.

The people of Elko and Humboldt should not complain of Nye, Esmeralda and White Pine if they have been successful in securing recognition. It will all go to help Nevada and uphold this state, and instead of a complaint, compliments should be the result.

What Tonopah Is Losing

Klondyke, situated midway between Tonopah and Goldfield, is going to be one of the greatest little mining districts in southern Nevada before the next year passes by. At the present time 60 or 70 men are employed in the district, and ore shipments are of a daily occurrence. The district is booming and will continue to boom, and naturally the greater part of the trade will go either to Tonopah or Goldfield.

The people of Tonopah, and particularly the business men, do not appear to be aware of the fact that Klondyke is tributary to this district and that practically all of the trade can be secured with but little exertion. Probably they do not care or do not believe that the game is worthy of the effort. At any rate each passing day witnesses a portion of the trade drawn to our neighboring city on the south.

The road from Tonopah to Klondyke is far better than the thoroughfare from Klondyke to Goldfield. There is practically no difference in the distance. Yet with road conditions favoring Tonopah, the merchants should profit with that one item in their favor. It is not too late to secure the trade and all that is needed is a little energy on the part of the home business man, if that energy is possessed.

Each day witnesses the need of a chamber of commerce, or some kindred association in Tonopah, for with an organization of that kind in existence it would only be a matter of hours until steps were taken to divert the trade from the Klondyke regions to this district, in the direction of Tonopah.

Why not organize an association of that kind?

Election Day In Wonder

"There seems to be an element in the average man which makes him want what he can't get, and whisky on election day is one of the things he will have," is the manner in which Bill Ellis, of the Wonder News described the happenings of election day in his home ballpark. In closing his descriptive article Ellis says: "With the closing of the polls the doors of the thirst parlors came ajar, and men who ordinarily would pass by on the other side of the street were not slow in placing their vests against the molding of the bars."

Now comes the cheerful information that the old Nye and Ormsby County bank building at Wonder has been turned into a laundry

Toilet Goods As GIFTS...

We carry at this season, and all seasons, a very adequate line of such toilet articles as

CLOTH BRUSHES, HAIR BRUSHES, HAT BRUSHES, WHISKES, MIRRORS, NAIL BRUSHES, MANICURE ARTICLES, ETC.

This is a good season to buy them because our stock is at its best.

It is a good time to buy such articles for your own use, too, for unless wants of this nature are provided for, at holiday time they are often neglected.

If you need such goods you are sure to be pleased with our assortment and prices.

by an enterprising and hard working woman. The depositors were cleaned in the former instance and from present indications it appears they will be forced to make another trip to the cleaners to secure their washing.

Goldfield had the Bryan mule until it was put to work hauling a brewery wagon. Now Tonopah has a republican goat. Fortunately, there are no breweries here.

AMUSEMENTS

Butler Theater

This evening's program at the Butler theater will be of the usual high standard. Four pictures will be shown. The pictures are as follows: "The Substitute Model," a Selig drama; "The Governor," an Edison drama; "A Trustee of the Law," a Lubin western drama, and a big Vitagraph comedy featuring that funny fat comedian John Bunny, entitled "Bunny All At Sea." Our good-natured friend gets jealous of the ship's captain. He poses as commander, gets into trouble until he is restored to his place among the passengers. The management of the Butler guarantees a good show and a long, hearty laugh to every one attending. Thursday, a big feature comedy, "Alkali Ike's Pants."

Thursday in addition to the show Mrs. Maxwell will appear in vaudeville. Mrs. Maxwell has a strong, clear voice and will change her songs every night. She made a big hit last night with the audience and received a great reception.

RECOVERED FROM SEVERE LUNG TROUBLE

While we all know that plenty of fresh air and good food are necessary to persons suffering from lung trouble, something more is needed to bring about full health. Eckman's Alternative is a medicine for throat and lung troubles, and so many reports have been received showing that it brought about good results in a number of cases which were declared hopeless, that all sufferers should at least investigate what it has done for others. It may be the means of restoring you to health. Investigate this case.

Madison Lake, Minn.
 "Gentlemen:—In December, 1905 and March, 1909, I was taken with hemorrhages of the lungs which confined me several weeks, each time to my bed. These left me very weak and I coughed at nights and could not sleep. My appetite also failed me. My doctor advised me to go west. So, in September, 1909, I planned to go, but I had four more hemorrhages, which put me in bed for three weeks. "In November I started for Denver, Colo. After my arrival I met Michael Brody, who, upon learning of my condition, urged me to take Eckman's Alternative. In about two months I began to feel better. I kept on taking the medicine and improved fast. In March, 1910, I returned home. I think I am entirely well, have a good appetite and sleep well. When I left Denver my weight was 130 pounds. I now weight 165, my normal weight. I thank God and your Alternative for my health. If I can help any other person suffering from Tuberculosis, I will gladly do so."
 (Sworn Affidavit)

PAUL L. FASNAUGHT.
